

ELDER WONG'S LETTER

July 2026

Many of my friends wondered why I took on so many roles at churches and Christian organizations! I have been criticized for taking on too many jobs in my life.

At the age of 76 I am still working full-time, involved at church, LSI, and Chinese Christian Herald Crusades (CCHC) in boards and management-level positions, as well as speaking on Sundays at different churches and workshops at Mission events.

I love to work. But the main reason I am so involved is because we only live once. Our life on earth is short, and God has told me to treat this short time seriously. Honestly, I truly enjoy my work at LSI's world mission and CCHC's mission work at the domestic level. And, of course, I need to serve my church at home.

Every project at LSI brings me joy as well as challenges. I enjoy working with my fellow coworkers who are dedicated to serving Christ. And I enjoy every morning as we gather to read His Word and pray before starting our work.

我雖然已76歲，仍全時間投入教會、LSI及角聲（CCHC）的多項事奉，因深信人生短暫，願趁著神所賜的機會竭力服事主，直到退休不是我的目標，而是忠心到底。

So next time you see me, don't tell me I should retire or do less!

Samuel

Luke Services International

626-307-0660

info@lsihope.org